The First United Methodist Church of Germantown (FUMCOG) is a diverse, urban community of faith that seeks to experience and worship God through Jesus' message of love and inclusion and the mystery of grace expressed through his life. We affirm our commitment by working together, taking risks for social justice and peace in our community, our city, our nation, and our world.

First United Methodist Church of Germantown

Sunday, January 18, 2026 11:00AM

Welcome To All Coming To Worship!

All people of all ages are invited to full participation in the engaging worship and outreaching mission and ministry of the church. We strongly encourage all persons to sing the gender nouns and pronouns they prefer in referring to God. Congregational responses are in bold type.

AAHH - African American Heritage Hymnal

TFWS - The Faith We Sing

UMH - United Methodist Hymnal

Welcome & Acknowledgements

As a faith congregation, we acknowledge that this is a pivotal moment in American history and that our mission is clearly laid out in the Gospel of Jesus.

We acknowledge our mission to:

- seek justice for black and brown people of all genders and orientations
- dismantle systems of bias and racism
- call out those who protect the power of state-sponsored violence against black and brown bodies,
- and re-center the voices of the marginalized of our community and society.

We acknowledge our part in perpetuating white norms of language, style, worship, behavior, and culture, and, with the guidance of the Holy Spirit, we acknowledge the truth that Black Lives Matter.

We acknowledge that this service of worship is being held on the traditional lands of the Lenape people, and we pay respect to elders past and present.

We affirm the sacredness of Native people, their languages, their cultures and their gifts to the church and the world.

Call to Worship

Standing with body and spirit

Leader: We gather in the truth Dr. King named:
we belong to one another.

People: Bound in a single garment of destiny,
what touches one touches all.

Leader: We are woven together in an inescapable network of mutuality.

People: What affects one, affects all.

Leader: We are designed by God for courageous,
risk-taking solidarity.

People: We come to worship, ready to become who we are meant to be—together.

Leader: Let us worship with our minds stayed on Jesus,

People: And join in God's freedom song.

Total Praise, by Richard Smallwood

Lord, I will lift mine eyes to the hills
Knowing my help is coming from you
Your peace you give me in times of the storm
You are the source of my strength
You are the strength of my life
I lift my hands in total praise to you.
Amen.

New Year, New Study!

This Spring in worship we will be focused on the Gospel of John and his unique way of inviting us into the radical ways of Jesus. If you want to go deeper than just the Sunday morning message, please plan to join us online any/every Wednesday at 1:30pm (tinyurl.com/zoomcog) for Bible Study where we will get the background of the text and wrestle together with how it applies to our lives. In addition to the scripture, we will rely on the Disciple Bible Curriculum Called "An Invitation to John." If you cannot do daytime and would still like a Bible Study, please also reach out to Pastor Alisa with any interest.

KIDS AT FUMCOG

All children are beloved and welcomed here. We offer three ways for your child(ren) to engage:

- * Join in the new "Nursery Ministry." All kids 6 and under are invited to join Ms. Lanette in Pilling Hall immediately following the Children's Message.
- * Enjoy a "Kid Activity Bag". Just ask an usher.
- * Play in the "Children's Space" in the Sanctuary's back corner.

We are so glad you and your family are here!

Scripture Readings

Luke 10:25-28

On one occasion an expert in the law stood up to test Jesus. “Teacher,” he asked, “what must I do to inherit eternal life?”

26 “What is written in the Law?” he replied. “How do you read it?”

27 He answered, “‘Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind’; and, ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.’”

28 “You have answered correctly,” Jesus replied. “Do this and you will live.”

John 2:13-16

The Passover of the Jews was near, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. 14 In the temple he found people selling cattle, sheep, and doves and the money changers seated at their tables. 15 Making a whip of cords, he drove all of them out of the temple, with the sheep and the cattle. He also poured out the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables. 16 He told those who were selling the doves, “Take these things out of here! Stop making my Father’s house a marketplace!”

Contemporary Reading

“Time itself is neutral; it can be used either destructively or constructively. More and more I feel that the people of ill will have used time much more effectively than have the people of good will. We will have to repent in this generation not merely for the hateful words and actions of the bad people but for the appalling silence of the good people. Human progress never rolls in on wheels of inevitability; it comes through the tireless efforts of men willing to work to be co-workers with God, and without this hard work, time itself becomes an ally of the forces of social stagnation. We must use time creatively, in the knowledge that the time is always ripe to do right.”

- from “Why We Can’t Wait”,
by Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

2026 Recipients

Christine Schafer

Ken Weinstein

For 28 years, on Martin Luther King, Jr. Sunday, FUMCOG has awarded a FUMCOG or community member with the Social Racial Justice Award. This award is given in recognition of the work of an individual making a significant contribution toward the resolution of issues of injustice and the motivation of others to engage in this work. It has been the practice of the award committee, composed of former recipients of the award, to keep the name/s of the current year’s award recipient/s a secret until Martin Luther King, Jr. Sunday. The committee has decided to revise that practice. So it is with great joy that we announce the 2026 Awardees as Christine Schafer and Ken Weinstein. Please join us for a reception following worship where we can personally thank them for their contributions toward resolving injustices.

Pennsylvania Interfaith Power and Light Annual Convening with Valerie Kaur

Join PA IPL for the Love Your Neighbor, Love Your World: Annual Convening on January 25th from 2-4pm. Together we will explore topics related to faith, revolutionary love, and justice. We are very excited to invite Valerie Kaur for a special fireside chat! Valarie Kaur is a renowned civil rights leader, lawyer, award-winning filmmaker, educator, innovator, and best-selling author of See No Stranger: A Memoir and Manifesto of Revolutionary Love. After this, we'll hear from a panel fireside chat reflecting on 10 years of Laudato Si! Then, Monday January 26th through Thursday January 29th, PA IPL will be hosting workshops on each evening at 7pm! Topics include trees, community organizing skills, pollinators, and love! Learn more and register: <https://qrco.de/ACB25>

GET YOUR TICKETS TO OUR UPCOMING CONCERT:

COMING TO AMERICA
Saturday, January 31, 2026, 4:00PM

We are excited to begin our special series of choral tributes to America's 250th birthday later this month with a celebration of composers who immigrated to America or are the children of these immigrants. Visit PhilomusicaChorale.org for tickets and more information on the concert series.

Cooking with Our Neighbors

Germantown Community Fridges are a 24/7 mutual aid resource that helps combat food insecurity and food waste in Philadelphia, specifically in the Germantown neighborhood. FUMCOG is blessed to host a fridge under our High St. porch and cook together. This year we put over 13,000 fresh cooked meals into the Fridge! Come on January 19th at 11am to help us make delicious meals for our neighbors. Reach out to germantownfridge@gmail.com for more information and cooking times.

We Walk by Faith Event

As we move through this season remembering the life and witness of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., this gathering offers space to ground ourselves in faith that is both reflective and active. We will meet with other United Methodist churches at Paoli UMC from 2pm-4pm to reconnect, reflect, and discern together how we are being called to respond in this moment. We'll explore why we act as people of faith, where we are being invited to show up in our communities, and how we move forward through mutual aid, organizing, and shared commitment. There will be light refreshments, intentional conversation, and time to strengthen relationships across our churches and justice efforts.

You can register using the link in Hot Topics for this January 31st event.

Event Location: Paoli United Methodist Church
 81 Devon Rd., Paoli, PA 19301.

New Women's Group

Would you like to connect with other young/middle aged women at FUMCOG? We have many wonderful women, both new to the church and long-timers, who can't do daytime gatherings but would still love to connect for study, service, food, friendship, support... you name it. Pastor Alisa is hosting a gathering at her house simply to meet each other and explore interest in a regular monthly group. She'd love to hear what you are thinking or would like to see here at FUMCOG. So please come, Monday, January 26 at 6:30 pm and email Alisa\(wailoo@fumcog.org\)) for directions.

ICE Raid Hotline

Juntos, a Latine community organizing group, has a community-run rapid response hotline for folks who witness an ICE raid. Please share widely with your friends and neighbors: (814) 205-3293.
